Yep. I've put it off hoping I could take it in person. Now I'm not new, but still need the training.

I've got a mandatory OPM supervisory training all next week. It's the kind for new managers that used to be in Virginia, but now it is on line. I'm not supposed to miss any of it.
I think Shanna can take the lead on fish consumption – she'll have to because I won't be at the DRAT call either...

Using the outlook scheduling assistant, it looks like most of us are available on Monday at 10:30 (except Karrie Jo and me). That might be the best we can do with a group this size. Are there any other conflicts on Monday at 10:30?

Or we can do Friday. It is my CDO, but I can call in. Based on the outlook calendars, it looks like Joel, Karrie and Tim (most of day) have a conflict. I think it's Connie's CDO, too.

Let me know your preferences and then we can get back to TDEC (I took Randy and Courtney off this email chain).

Hi Cathy,

It would be great to compare notes.

Thursday at 1:00pm is when Randy, Justin (our risk assessor), and I are planning to meet to develop the risk scenarios TDEC is interested in running. Turns out our schedules are a bit more full than I think we realized during the previous DRAT call.

Would EPA be available to meet on Friday 8/20 anytime or Monday 8/23 around 10:30 am?

Courtney

Hi Randy and Courtney,

We'd like to compare notes with you prior to responding to DOE regarding the risk scenarios we would like to see run. Please include others at TDEC as you deem appropriate. We will share our notes prior to the call – working on them now. If this isn't a good time/day, please let me know.

Thank you!
